A wider perspective. A clearer first impression.

The group’s existing identity and photography, reimagined around seven specialist businesses and a simpler path to conversation.

The current website

The proposed redesign

Make the group clear

Dedicated business pages and an interactive index connect the group story to relevant capabilities.

Let real assets earn trust

Original company imagery, leadership and a filterable gallery replace generic claims.

Start a better conversation

Responsive layouts and enquiries that carry the visitor’s chosen business into the form.

Independent presentation concept. Company identity and imagery belong to their respective owners.

Working website + complete source + original asset archive